Indigo Loft Salon

OWNER | HAIRSTYLIST

Jackie has not only been a stylist for over 25 years, but she has been in the industry most of her life! She comes from a family of hairstylists, and helped her mother and grandmother around the salon as a young girl! She started her career in Maryland and then Connecticut! During her career she had trained at the Tigi academy in London, as well as various high profile classes around the country. Jackie is highly skilled in all areas, but hair cutting techniques are truly some of the best. She has in-depth knowledge and experience with all textures of hair as well as color.
